Children's Home Society of Florida

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA LIBRARIES

Flowers are for gratifications, birthdays, weddings, who are living and to express the depth of your love, the breadth of your friendship, and the height of your admiration.

MEMORIAL — "Serving to commemorate" (Webster)

CAN THERE be any finer way to commemorate those who are no longer living than by "serving" the hundreds of children who are homeless, needy and totally dependent?

Memorial gifts to The Children's Home Society of Florida assist in bringing "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness" to the girls and boys of all ages, from the very young to teen agers.

When your dearly beloved ones, very special friends, and esteemed associates have departed, build a living monument to memorialize them, in the life of a child. Perpetuate their memory by making it possible for a child to live more securely and abundantly.

Memorial Gifts are acknowledged to the bereaved relatives by a letter, and a Memorial Card which is the symbol of thoughtful and loving sympathy.

ANNUAL REPORT

THE CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF FLORIDA

THE CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY OF FLORIDA was incorporated on November 17, 1902 as an organization not for profit but for the purpose of taking care of needy children. It has operated successfully for forty nine years through the contributions, as well as the good will, of the people who love children. We have endeavored in this report to portray the activities and services of the Society during 1951.

This report is a tribute to Marcus C. "Daddy" Fagg, who served the Society as State Superintendent for forty one years and now has the title of State Superintendent Emeritus and Consultant.

“A Message from your President . . .

S. KENDRICK GUERNSEY
Jacksonville
President, The Children's Home Society of Florida

HOW MANY times over the years have you and I heard — have you and I said: “‘Daddy’ Fagg IS The Children’s Home Society of Florida.”

How true that is, and how sincerely do we hope The Children’s Home Society will always typify Marcus Fagg. For no higher standards could be set than those which characterize this fine gentleman with his understanding attitude, with his warmth of heart that exceeds description, and at the same time a keen business mind and a wealth of experience which combined to constitute Mr. Fagg the ideal architect and builder of “Florida’s Greatest Charity.”

When it became necessary to seek a successor, we did not attempt to find another “Daddy” Fagg, for we knew that would be impossible. But we did seek assiduously to find a man whose heart qualities and whose love of humanity would approximate those of our beloved “Daddy” Fagg. Scores of interviews were held and recommended successors considered. Among all of these one stood above all of the others. Happily he was a resident of Florida, a successful business man, a man with wide acquaintance within the state, and familiar with the services of the Society. By unanimous agreement Mr. O. K. France of Miami was chosen for this position. And in the few months of his Executive Directorship he has justified our every confidence.

It is my earnest hope that each member of the Society will come to know Mr. France intimately, for to know him well is to love him and admire him. He is perhaps the only man about whom Marcus Fagg enthusiastically could say, “I am proud to recognize him as my successor. And I ask that you give him the same wholehearted support you have given me.”

May the Society continue growing in its service to children, and in the confidence of the citizens of Florida, and may it never depart from those ideals which have characterized its every activity and which have ever been close to the heart of Marcus C. “Daddy” Fagg.

Marcus C. "Daddy" Fagg...

Marcus C. Fagg came to Florida as a young man when our State particularly needed laws for protection of children, bringing as assets farsightedness, optimism, understanding sympathy and unlimited enthusiasm, which brought to him a host of friends in all walks of life, religious, educational, political and social.

Through these personal assets and countless friends, not only has he been able to help in the passing of the needed laws but, working from the feeble nucleus which he found, he has brought our organization to its rightful place as Florida's greatest charity and, moreover, has seen the realization of his dreams in the completion of the buildings, entirely free of debt, which now house our children, thus reaping a type of reward few attain and none more richly merits.

I deem it a rare opportunity to have served our Society with Mr. Fagg and to be privileged to count him among my truest friends.

Ninah M. H. Cummer

Marcus C. Fagg is one of the greatest humanitarians I have ever known. His interest in the welfare of homeless children and his rare ability to create in many others that same interest has built up our Society from a small beginning to an enormously useful and important institution. "Daddy" Fagg, during his forty-one years of arduous service has, in my opinion, done more for the welfare of children than any other individual in our state.

I am proud to have the honor to call him my friend.

Frank D. Bisbee

His travels crossed and recrossed the state until there was no spot in Florida where he had not been. He had two missions; one was to find unhappy children, the ailing, the unloved, the homeless and hungry; the other to speak to the people of Florida in behalf of these little ones.

To the children, he was really a Daddy. His voice was to many the first note of tenderness in their lives. His arms were the welcoming door to a good life.

When he pleaded for funds (for the work of The Children's Home Society) and for new homes for the children, his heart spoke sincerely to other hearts and the response came in generosity and love.

He may call his work done, but it is not at an end. The pattern of consecration set by him is an inspiration to all who would serve a great cause. The better laws he helped secure are still operating. The thousands of children he saved and brought into a better way of life are influencing other lives.

Daddy Fagg's reward lies in the results, therefore, it is an enduring reward. This state will always be a better place to live because a man of great human sympathy and complete devotion chose to live and work in Florida.

R. Barnwell Fuller

A man who lives by the Golden Rule—a good man in the fullest sense of the word. He loves his fellow-man, and especially loves children.

He believes that there is a home and a mother for every homeless child—he has found more homes and mothers for homeless children than any man in Florida.

He possesses all the fine qualities that make him not only a good citizen, but honored and loved by everyone who knows him.

I do not control words enough to express all of the fine things that I cherish in my heart for Marcus Fagg.

R. V. Covington

Marcus Fagg is an-INSTITUTION and an INSPIRATION in Florida and no one has made so large a contribution to its welfare and aroused enthusiasm in so many people for service and sacrifice for the childhood of this state as has this great Christian leader.

We who have come into contact with him are all better men and women because we know and love him. Marcus Fagg is truly "the best loved man in Florida."

Karl Lehmann

When a person achieves the goal for which he has been striving during the greater part of his life—that goal being the betterment of his fellow man—he has reached the point where he can hope for no further reward, that is the Ultima Thule of his life.

Marcus Fagg is happy because of the satisfaction he derives from the knowledge that he has been able to make fifty-seven thousand of his fellow creatures also happy, by guiding them along the straight and narrow path.

From now until the end of his useful life may he dwell in happiness and contentment, engendered by the memories of the good he has done.

James W. Spratt

To those of our Staff who have known Mr. Fagg over a period of years, he represents a leader whose loyalty to and enthusiasm for the Society was contagious to those with whom he worked, and inspired them to greater achievements.

He is a courageous, Christian gentleman—untiring in his efforts, and no individual problem of a staff member was too small or too large to be discussed with him—he shared our joys and our sorrows, and always in a helpful way.

"Blessed is that man who has found his work."

Pauline West

TWO of the possessions that "Daddy" Fagg prizes most are a portrait painted for him by Mrs. Kitty Doyle Ford McGeehee at the request of the Board of Directors of The Children's Home Society of Florida, and a scroll of appreciation for his services, signed by the State President and Officers of the Board, also the Chief of the Staff of Physicians and Dentists, presented at the annual meeting in Jacksonville on January 24, 1952.

After 41 Years of Faithful Service

*the keys —
with their responsibility — were turned over to
O. K. France as Executive Director.*

IN AUGUST it was my privilege to make the most important announcement that has been made by The Children's Home Society of Florida for many years, which was that Mr. O. K. France of Miami, Florida was unanimously elected as Executive Director of the Society as of October 15th, 1951, to succeed me just one month after the completion of my forty-first year of service as State Superintendent and Executive Director on September 15th.

Mr. O. K. France was born and educated in Oklahoma, later having taken special courses in Psychology, Public Speaking, Public Relations, Advertising, Salesmanship and Economics in Madison, Wisconsin, as well as a special course in Physical Education at the University of Miami at Coral Gables. Mr. France also graduated from the Institute of Applied Science at Chicago, with the highest grades ever attained by any student.

Mr. France was affiliated with the Prudential Insurance Company of America as Special Agent in Miami when he came to us. Previously he had served as National Extension Representative for the National Exchange Club, and for some time he was in the real estate business in Arlington, Virginia. For three years (1942-1945) he was engaged in military service with the U. S. Navy.

The new Executive is an excellent public speaker, has had experience in the raising of funds, has been a successful administrator and executive, has a pleasing personality, and a genuine spirit of service, is an active member of the Baptist Church and a Mason; what's more, he has no bad habits!

His family consists of a charming wife, who is a real help to him in every way, and Olin Kenneth France, Junior, 3 years of age, a wonderfully attractive little fellow.

Mr. France came to The Children's Home Society with many fine letters of recommendation. He was selected out of more than twenty-five men whose applications were considered by the Selection Committee of the Society, as THE MAN FOR THE JOB. And after these four months under his guidance, the Board of Directors and I feel that our confidence was not misplaced, and we know now, as we felt then, that a kindly Providence led us to select the right man, and that we need have no fear about the future of The Children's Home Society of Florida, with the new Executive Director at the helm.

Mr. France's duties are administrative, public relations, the raising of funds, public speaking, et cetera. He has general direction of all of the affairs of the Society and its five Divisions at Jacksonville, Miami, Pensacola, Lakeland and Orlando.

The Officers and Directors of the Society and its Divisions have asked me to express the earnest hope that all those who are officially affiliated with the Society throughout the State, as well as the many thousands of friends and contributors everywhere, will give to Mr. France the same wonderful co-operation and support that it has been my privilege to receive through these many years.

MARCUS C. "DADDY" FAGG

Statement of Your New

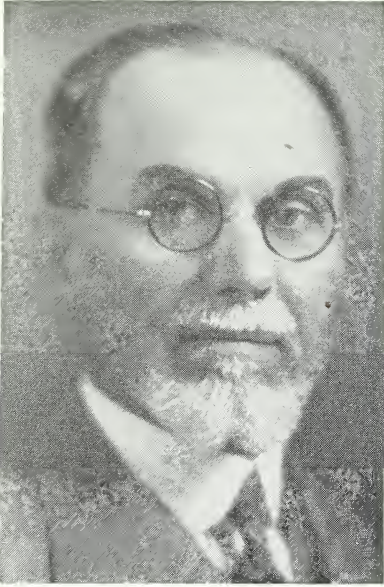

Executive Director

ON JULY 26TH, I was invited to become the Executive Director of The Children's Home Society of Florida by unanimous vote of the State Board of Directors. After several days of careful consideration, this challenge was accepted without reservation. As I am sure "Daddy" Fagg would agree with me, there is no greater challenge for service than that of being the Executive Director of The Children's Home Society of Florida. My sole interest in the future is to be of the greatest possible service in coordinating the efforts of The Children's Home Society to serve the children who are referred to us and need our help.

THE FEW short months that I have been with The Children's Home Society has afforded me the privilege of working with many of the finest men and women in the State of Florida. I refer particularly to the Board of Directors, the Women's Advisory Boards, and my staff of able assistants. Working together for a common goal of outstanding service, we can assure all the needy children who come under our care all the help, kindness, and love that can be provided. We are very grateful to children and adults alike who have sacrificed in order to make a contribution in either money or materials to make this unsurpassed charity possible.

Financial Statements For 1952

*Report of William H. Rogers
Treasurer*

AFTER EIGHT YEARS as Assistant-Treasurer of the Society, assisting Treasurer R. V. Covington, I have undertaken the duties of the office of Treasurer of the Society. I accept the responsibilities of this office, fully aware that it is incumbent upon me to strive to emulate the invaluable services of "Uncle Bob" Covington, a task which I assume with trepidation and humility. I will do my best.

I have taken over the responsibilities of the office of Treasurer for two reasons: first to reassure "Uncle Bob" that his long years of devotion to the best interests of the Society will be perpetuated insofar as it is within my ability; and second to acknowledge personally to Marcus (Daddy) Fagg the debt of gratitude which all Floridians owe him for a lifetime of public service.

WITH HEADQUARTERS AT 1649 OSCEOLA STREET, JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

Gave Aid, Study, Care, and Supervision to 402 Duval County Children during 1951

FRANK D. BISBEE
President, Northeastern Division

REPORT OF FRANK D. BISBEE, President, Northeastern Division

The Northeastern Division points with pride to the large number of children to whom we have rendered service. Care, custody or supervision were given to 402 Duval County children; and 56 legal adoptions were completed within Duval County. An outstanding record!

Now that we are entirely settled in our modern new buildings, we feel that with these added facilities, the future of our Children's Home Society will be even brighter and the opportunity to aid homeless children will be greater than ever before.

It gives me genuine pleasure to state that our Board is very pleased with the most efficient and conscientious manner in which our new Executive Director, Mr. O. K. France, is handling the affairs of the Society.

Frank D. Bisbee

FRANKLIN G. RUSSELL

Franklin G. Russell, a valued member of the Board of Directors of The Children's Home Society for many years, is now serving as Secretary of the State Organization, as well as the Northeastern Division. All who know him point to him as one of Jacksonville's leading citizens and one who can be counted upon to support any worthwhile civic enterprise.

Mr. Russell put a big "Red Feather" in his hat in 1951 as Campaign Chairman of the Jacksonville and Duval County Community Chest. He is to be congratulated for his direction and steering of an "over the top" campaign, the first in several years and the fourth in the twenty-six year history of this Community Chest. Mr. Russell's genius for inspiring folks to work with him, along with the splendid organizational job done by Fred L. Huffman, Executive Secretary of the Community Chest, made the last campaign a notable one.

The Children's Home Society of Florida is to be congratulated on having a man of the calibre of Mr. Russell to give of his time and effort to "Florida's Greatest Charity." A busy man, but never too busy to be of service. We salute him!

Mrs. McCrory's Report

The Woman's Advisory Board of the Northeastern Division has held its meetings on the second Thursday of every month from October through June at the Children's Home. We have discussed various cases with Mr. Fagg (before his retirement) and with Miss Helen D. Cole, the State Director of Children's Services. We have helped to formulate policies concerning children.

The activities of our members during the year include visiting the Receiving Home cottages periodically, checking on clothing, sewing and mending that is necessary for the children, supervising the planting of shrubs to beautify the grounds. We were quite pleased to have had the opportunity of helping to provide a grand and glorious Christmas party for the children, of which many of our members will long cherish happy memories. One of the highlights of the year for all those interested in the Children's Home Society is the annual meeting luncheon, and our members who assisted this year in adding true beauty to the occasion are certainly to be commended.

We are all very much interested in the children and their welfare, and stand ready to be called upon for advice or assistance at any time.

Respectfully submitted,
HILDA RUSSELL MCCRORY
President, Woman's Advisory Board

Mrs. Mayme Winters has the greatest responsibility of any of the Receiving Home Superintendents in the State, principally because the Jacksonville Receiving Home is the largest, with an average family of around sixty children. Oftentimes the number is greater than this. (In addition to the children in the Receiving Home, all infants, as well as some older children, are cared for in boarding homes in and around Jacksonville.)

Mrs. Winters is a good business woman and does a good job of operating the Receiving Home economically. She is very fortunate in having some very fine and capable assistants and cottage mothers, and she has certainly shown a keen interest in doing as much as possible for the comfort and general welfare of all the children under her care and supervision.

Mrs. Winters has enjoyed the support of the Woman's Advisory Board, Garden Clubs, Church Societies, service organizations, as well as many other groups and individuals, who have done their part to make life more enjoyable for the children in our Receiving Home.

Statement By O. K. France

Having come to the Society late in the year, I missed many of the outstanding events which occurred in the Northeastern Division during 1951. There was one event, however, which I shall forever remember. It was my first close contact with the children in our Receiving Home in Jacksonville. The occasion was one which had been planned for the office staff and caseworkers to participate in a Hal-lowe'en Party at the Receiving Home.

I had not fully realized just how hungry our boys and girls were for love until that time. It was heart-warming and heart-rending to receive the affection of the children, large and small. The staff members responded warmly to the overtures of the children and a very happy time was had by all. Mrs. France and I had not expected to be called "Mother" and "Daddy" France so soon, but we were accepted as such unreservedly and I could well understand then why "Daddy" Fagg considered it such a thrill to be called "Daddy."

As entertainment for the children, I showed some movies which I had made of many of the points of interest around Miami, such as the Rare Bird Farm, the Parrot Jungle, the Theatre of the Sea, the Monkey Jungle, Miami Beach, etc. There was never a more appreciative audience than the one I was privileged to entertain on that occasion. They have begged me many times since to bring my movies back or provide them with movies at regular intervals.

By Christmas the children had me pretty well convinced that I was to be "Daddy" to them. We are all grateful to anyone who helps to make life more pleasant for the little ones who are referred to us for care and services. We are especially grateful to all who had a part in making our Thanksgiving and Christmas such joyous occasions. No child was forgotten, and I am sure that they would all tell you that last Christmas was just about the finest Christmas they ever had. Thank you for thinking of them.

In all sincerity,

O. K. FRANCE,
Executive Director

SOUTHEASTERN DIVISION

President S. Kendrick Guernsey of the Children's Home Society of Florida was the speaker at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Division on January 14, 1952. His message was one that will long be remembered by all who had the privilege of hearing it. They will not forget the "Three Keys to Happiness," namely, Friendliness, Helpfulness, and Kindness. He is pictured with President M. L. Mershon of the Southeastern Division and O. K. France, Executive Director of the State Organization, on this occasion.

Mrs. Catherine Argo

Mrs. Catherine Argo, Division Superintendent of the Southeastern Division has proven to be most excellent in doing an outstanding job of public relations in her Division. She has a genuine knack for being able to work with people and getting them to work together. She has done a fine job of working with the Board of Directors and the various Committees of the Board, the Woman's Advisory Board, and the community at large. Through her untiring efforts our children in the Southeastern Division received a great deal more attention than they would probably have received under a less efficient Superintendent. This, of course, was accomplished by the able assistance of her office manager, Mrs. Eunice Henry, and other members of the staff. Some of the children were given Y.M.C.A. memberships, birthday parties, trips to the movies, the beach and of course, food, clothing, toys, etc. This was climaxed at the end of the year by a Christmas that will never be forgotten by any of the children who participated. We hope that everyone who took part in these various activities during 1951 will continue that activity each year and encourage others to share in the joy and pleasure that it affords.

GAVE AID, STUDY, CARE AND SUPERVISION
TO 274 CHILDREN IN 1951.

President Mershon Says:

The Southeastern Division is proud of the part it has been privileged to play in the progress and development of The Children's Home Society during 1951. You will read elsewhere in this report the statistics on the number of children who have been served in various ways.

The moving force behind any philanthropic endeavor is the interest of the persons who sponsor it. We are fortunate in the Southeastern Division in having the wholehearted support of a large group of people who are sincerely interested in the Society and the work it is doing. An active Board of Directors and Woman's Advisory Board have devoted substantial and continuous volunteer time and effort so that the day-to-day existence of the children under our care could be made more comfortable, happy and pleasant.

The Southeastern Division has been fortunate in having a medical and dental staff who have cared for our children in 1951 so well that there has not been a serious epidemic or death. They have given over 256 hours to that care. Each child before being placed in an adoptive home, and again before adoption becomes final, has been examined by pediatricians and psychologists so that The Children's Home Society can vouch for its physical and mental health. Our latest service is a "well baby" clinic which is held once a month.

Through contribution from the Dade County Community Chest, Fort Lauderdale Community Chest and donations from our friends, we have been able to carry on the work of the Southeastern Division.

The Southeastern Division is carrying on the tradition created by our beloved Superintendent, Marcus Fagg, of service to needy children whenever and wherever service is needed.

MRS. JOHN C. MOERI
President, Woman's Advisory Board

Report For 1951

WOMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD SOUTHEASTERN DIVISION

Our Woman's Advisory Board had the great good fortune to start the year 1951 in the presence of our beloved "Daddy" Fagg who, with Miss Cole, attended our January meeting.

I feel that we have accomplished some things for our Home in its physical aspects as well as in the happiness and security of our children. Arrangements have been made for our yard to receive regular and professional care, and new porch furniture has added to the comfort and appearance of the interior. Needed bedspreads, clothes hampers, table silver, clothing and food were provided. Decorations for the various holidays, our annual Open House and the Annual Meeting were appropriate and attractive. The school children have been given regular allowances according to age, and those who were interested attended concerts, ballet, summer camp and were given "Y" memberships. A dollar was given to each child for Christmas spending, and the Home staff members as well as the children were given Christmas gifts. We think we can point with just pride to the Receiving Home and its precious occupants, and, what is even more important, to the atmosphere of congenial family living inspired by Miss Bly.

Through our Case Work Committee we have a broader knowledge of the problems of the professional staff. In November we were present when one of our three-month-old little girls was tested at the Child Guidance Clinic at the University. Six "godmothers" sat back in smug satisfaction when she came through with flying colors, and again when we learned later that she had found a permanent home with parents appreciative of her superiority.

Our Legislation Committee keeps us well informed of pending legislation affecting our children, and in many cases the Board has expressed its pleasure to our government representatives.

We were happy to welcome Miss Cole, Mr. Guernsey and Mr. France, whose warm personalities and sincere interest have already endeared them to us. To "Daddy" Fagg, whose presence we miss but whose unselfish devotion is our constant inspiration, we wish God's blessings of good health and assurance of a wonderful work well done.

Respectfully submitted,
BERTHA H. MOERI,
President

Miss Melba Bly

Superintendent of the Receiving Home of the Southeastern Division, does an exceptionally fine job of being mother to a large family of our children, several of whom are teen agers. One immediately senses a feeling of hominess and real joy and happiness when entering the Receiving Home in Miami. It truly is one big happy family, of which Miss Bly is a real part. The children are receiving care and understanding which will enrich their future in many ways. The girls will be particularly well equipped to become successful homemakers. There is a fine sense of teamwork and mutual appreciation between the members of the Woman's Advisory Board and Miss Bly.

Ray M. Earnest

Treasurer of the Southeastern Division, and Alternate for the President (doubling for him on many occasions), is one of Miami's outstanding citizens and an ardent supporter of civic enterprises. The Children's Home Society is very happy to have him as a member of the Board of Directors. He gives unselfishly of his time and is always willing to do anything that he is asked to do for the benefit of our children. He is a staunch supporter of the Community Chest, one of the most active members of the Exchange Club, and is a Sponsor or Director in many other organizations.

Mr. Earnest gave the financial report at the annual meetings of the Southeastern Division. Incidentally, it was the only Division ending the year with no loss and no gain.

Very early in 1952 by action of the State Board of Directors, Brevard and Volusia Counties were added to the Central Florida Division, which previously consisted of Lake, Orange, Seminole and Osceola Counties.

Randall Chase Says:

In 1951 the Central Florida Division, consisting of Orange, Lake, Osceola and Seminole Counties, handled 96 applications from families wishing to adopt children. At the close of the year there was a list of 65 approved applicants, of whom 17 were asking for a second child. During the same period a total of 68 children from 49 families were referred for service. Adoptive planning was to be considered for 32 children, temporary boarding care and supervision for 8, and other types of service for the remaining 28 children. 64 children were under the care and supervision of the Central Florida Division, 42 were legal wards and 14 received temporary boarding care, and 8 were given shelter care in receiving homes. During the year 35 children were discharged from the care of the Society, and 29 remained.

It has been suggested that the Central Florida Division expand its services to include Volusia and Brevard Counties. Several other counties were considered, but were eliminated for practical reasons. During 1951 the subject was given careful consideration at numerous committee meetings and, at the request of the State Office, a careful study was made by our efficient Director, Mrs. Hart. The exploration work included consultation with the local county courts and social services as well as the members of the Board of Directors and Sponsors of the Society in the counties that were under consideration. Statistical data was also collected relating to the adoptions from state agency resources.

Several noteworthy conclusions can be drawn from the information gathered:

1. That more readily available, on the spot, adoption service seemed greatly needed in these counties.
2. That the Welfare Board figures indicate that the number of independent, non-relative, adoptions in these counties tends to be considerably larger than the number of non-relative adoptions which took place under the auspices of licensed child placement agencies. The social agencies and Judges interviewed were unanimously of the opinion that increased and more readily available service by The Children's Home Society would be both welcome and helpful. The majority of the Society's Board Members and Sponsors concurred.

Meetings of board representatives were held during the year, and one general meeting last fall in Cocoa included representatives from the counties under study.

It was decided to undertake the expansion plans slowly. At the Annual Meeting of the Central Florida Division, held in Orlando on January 8, 1952, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Central Florida Division of The Children's Home Society of Florida recommend to the State Board of the Society that the services of this Division be expanded to include Brevard and Volusia counties—and that this proposed plan of operations be put into effect when conditions are favorable as to adequate means of financing and securing suitable additional staff.

This report would not be complete without recording appreciation of the very generous and most unselfish service rendered to the Division by Doctor Charlotte Maguire, who is Chief of the Medical Staff, and others who contributed their services, without charge, and Mrs. Marion H. Hart, the most efficient Director of this Division. As evidence of the good work that has been done we note with great satisfaction that the contributions from this Division increased materially in the year, which undoubtedly indicates that the splendid service is recognized and appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

At this meeting one of the most important matters discussed was that of the expansion of the Division to include Brevard and Volusia Counties. Some of the many people interested in this expansion, in addition to those mentioned above, are Mr. H. C. Laycock of Cocoa, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kahn of Daytona Beach, Miss Maude Ramsey and Mr. D. L. Thrasher of Sanford, and Dr. Kathryn Abbey Hanna of Winter Park, who attended a meeting held in Cocoa, October 19, 1951, to determine the advisability of such expansion.

The speaker at the annual meeting was Reverend J. A. Sawyer, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Cocoa. He is one of many who can tell you truly what The Children's Home Society means to children in need and what a joy it is to be placed in a loving home, because he was one of our children and today is one of more than fifty thousand who have reached maturity and have accepted their responsibility as citizens in this great nation of ours. In his address, Reverend Sawyer stressed the importance of the Society to the State in bringing together homeless children and childless homes. The work he described as "born out of tragedy and a greater responsibility than ever before." He used the illustration of "The Good Samaritan" to point out the way in which the Society completes the cycle of help to needy children, just as the Samaritan did not feel that his duties were discharged when he took the injured man to the inn and bound up his wounds, but he made provision for his care until he could take care of himself. We are proud of Reverend Sawyer and his accomplishments.

MRS. CLAUDE WOLFE'S REPORT

Because there is no Receiving Home in the Central Florida Division the duties and accomplishments of the Woman's Advisory Board are necessarily limited. However, the women are intensely interested in the work of the Society and in Osceola and Lake Counties plans are underway for a series of Silver Teas. Similar events in Seminole and Orange Counties expect to follow suit later in the spring. At our meetings, which are well attended, Mrs. Hart, Division Director, gives interesting facts of some of the babies that are being cared for in our foster homes. We assist her by taking the babies to the doctors for periodic check-ups. She also calls on us for any other assistance she may need.

We are looking forward to including on our Board interested women from Brevard and Volusia Counties and know they will serve the Society well in their respective communities.

Working with Daddy Fagg the few years of our existence has been most happy and inspiring. We anticipate working with Mr. France will be just as inspiring.

WITH HEADQUARTERS AT

*gave Study, Aid, Care and Supervision
to 98 Children in 1951*

Major Steitz Says:

Though interest in the new location and the proposed building program of the Rose Keller branch of The Children's Home Society is actually state-wide, enthusiasm is naturally highest in Polk County, where the Home has been a favorite philanthropic project since its doors were opened to the homeless, neglected and needy children in September 1927.

Since that date over 2,337 children have been cared for while in the old building. Many of these little ones are now grown up citizens of Florida, and will learn with pride that the old wooden building is to be replaced with fire resistant buildings, on a site that allows plenty of playground, overlooking beautiful Lake Morton, not far from the school which Rose Keller youngsters attend.

of Bartow, President of
Southwestern Division at Lakeland

President Fuller Says:

Words are inadequate to express the deep appreciation of the officers of the Southwestern (Polk County) Division of the Children's Home Society of Florida for the splendid cooperative assistance given to our organization during the year 1951 by the various individuals and groups. It was gratifying, indeed, to have had such a wonderful attendance from the various communities in the county at our Annual Meeting.

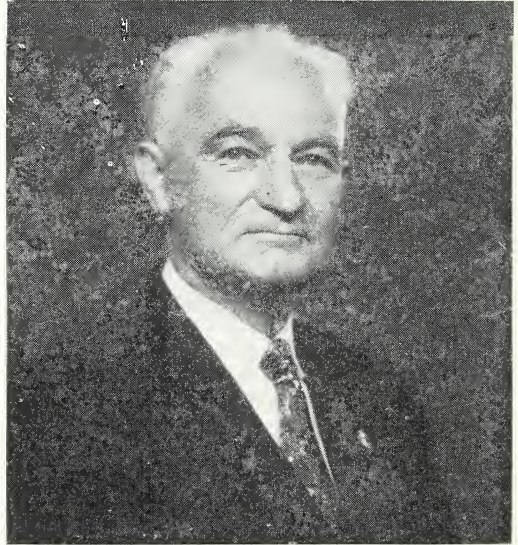

We are proud to state that our Building Committee and the architect are making progress with the plans for the erection of at least two units of the new Rose Keller Home on the Lake Morton site. We sincerely trust that these plans will reach such a stage during the early part of 1952 that contracts can be let for the erection of the administration building and one of the cottage type homes. We will make haste slowly because during this inflationary period we must make every dollar stretch as far as possible.

We look forward to the further stimulation of interest by the many individual friends and organizations who have so ably assisted us in the past for the continuance of this great work.

MAJOR WILLIAM STEITZ
Secretary-Treasurer
Southwestern Division Since 1927

And no more, will "would be visitors" have trouble in finding Rose Keller Home, since the new buildings will be part of the prominent skyline that circles Lake Morton, in the heart of Lakeland.

People are asking, When will the new home be built? How much money will be needed? There is no definite answer, as yet, to either question. However, plans have been drawn and amended several times, but it is thought they are now reaching final form. There is money on hand from various bequests and special donations. As the project proceeds, an increase in special donations is expected.

The magnitude of the undertaking will doubtless unfold as the work goes on. There will be, not only the buildings, but equipment and furnishings. The answer to the money question is that the new Home will, doubtless, need all that its friends can spare for the purpose.

Rose Keller Home has always been supported adequately and at times, most generously, by the people of Polk County. Never once in the 25 years has there ever been a deficit in its operation.

Because the Home is held so high in their affection, the people of Polk County will rejoice in the new location and have every right to let their joy and pride be a very personal matter.

REPORT OF MRS. J. H. HICKS, PRESIDENT OF SOUTHWESTERN DIVISION WOMAN'S ADVISORY BOARD, LAKE LAND

The Woman's Advisory Board of the Rose Keller Home met five times at the Home with a quorum present. We are proud of that record because our members are scattered from North Polk County to Punta Gorda. The membership was increased from fourteen to forty and we have tried to get two or more outstanding women from each community to serve on the Board because we feel that more publicity will develop and greater interest be aroused in that way. Members bring donations of jams, jellies, fruit, candy, linens, clothing and kitchen equipment to the Home. Through the efforts of Home Demonstration Club members who also work with us, we have received many jars and packages of food from the women of Polk County.

A reception was held in March so that we might meet and welcome Miss Helen Cole to our Division. We have been happy to have Miss Cole and Mrs. Sara Kirby, our caseworker, present at some of our meetings.

Members visit the Home frequently and are always willing to be of service. When the Home has been understaffed they have done the mending as needed.

We are thrilled by and deeply interested in the plans for the new Home and will do our best to further the efforts of the Building Committee.

Twenty-four of our members attended the Annual Meeting of the Rose Keller Board on January 7th.

Each member acts as a special publicity agent in her respective community to foster a wider and more understanding knowledge of the needs and work of the Society and in so doing, creates a greater interest in the work.

MRS. BOBBIE LESTER
Superintendent, Rose Keller Home

One would certainly have to love their work to do the job that Mrs. Bobbie Lester is doing for the children in the Rose Keller Home. With antiquated equipment and much of that in need of repair, there is no question but that "it would try the patience of Job," and Mrs. Lester has had that patience. Though always welcoming visitors, regardless of the hour or the day, she has made a great many friends for the Society. She is looking forward to moving into a new Receiving Home this year, which will be the finest and most modern cottage for the care of children in America.

Studying plans for the new Rose Keller Home at Lakeland, Florida are members of the Building Committee. Seated, left to right: Mrs. J. H. Hicks, President of the Woman's Advisory Board, Southwestern Division, Mrs. Polly Eberhardt, Vice President, and Mrs. William Steitz, Past President. Standing, in the same order: O. K. France, Executive Director of the State Organization, R. Barnwell Fuller, President of the Southwestern Division, Thomas Talley, Architect, Hammond Jones, Chairman of the Building Committee, Dr. R. E. Wilhoite, member of the Board of Directors, W. B. Talley, Architect, and Major William Steitz, Secretary-Treasurer of the Division. The Building Committee, composed of members of the Board of Directors, the Woman's Advisory Board and friends of the Society, gave careful consideration to the plans for the new Rose Keller Home at the annual meeting, held in Lakeland on January 7, 1952. Mr. O. K. France was the principal speaker at this meeting.

Miss Cole Reports—

During the past year, the Society gave care and supervision to 1,074 children, of which 559 were new admissions. The temporary care given a large number of these in our four Receiving Homes was of vital importance in the life of each child. One hundred and sixty-seven of the new children needed permanent care, and were legally committed to be placed for adoption. The wide discrepancy, however, between the number of adoptable children and the number of couples applying to adopt a child is a matter of deep concern to the agency. The situation is not peculiar to The Children's Home Society and to the State of Florida. Every adoption agency in the country is meeting the same problem.

There are many babies in the various communities of our State needing the safeguards which The Children's Home Society offers to children who should be adopted. With the increased staff, supported by our unusually able Board of Directors, we are now in a position to give care to more children; with additional staff members in Duval County, planned expansion of the work in the Central Florida Division, and the opening of a new office in St. Petersburg to serve the Gulf Coast, we expect to offer protection and service to many more children in the coming year.

Children Appreciate Life at Rose Keller Home

Each year the children of the Rose Keller Home learn that they have many true friends who want to give them everything they can for their welfare and happiness, including entertainment and pleasures of many kinds. Pictured above is one of the many picnics provided for the children, this one being put on by the Food Machinery Corporation, but service clubs, lodges, fraternities, church groups and many others are interested in our children and help to provide for them a well rounded social life, in addition to helping to provide the every day necessities.

(ESSAY BY ERNEST OLIVER, 14-YEAR-OLD BOY AT ROSE KELLER HOME, WHO ATTENDS LAKE MORTON SCHOOL)

This Home means a lot to many, many girls and boys who need help.

We get very good training, both moral and religious.

We get good food, good clothes and have a very comfortable place to live.

We are taught correct health habits and how to live with other boys and girls and be happy.

We are taught to help with the chores around the house.

We are rewarded when our work and behavior are good.

We are taught to eat correctly and dress correctly and behave in general as boys should.

I will carry some very good thoughts with me when I leave the Home.

We have a lot of recreation, football, softball, movies each week and lots of parties and picnics.

Lakeland Ledger—Nov. 29, 1951

Robert, age 5, and Richard, age 7, are two of the hundreds of children given care during the past year in our Receiving Homes, while their mother was in the hospital for several months, following a serious operation.

REUNITING A FAMILY

Deserted by their father and without relatives to care for them, these children were in desperate need. Their mother could pay neither their board nor her hospital bills. She was frantic with worry, bewildered, hurt and frightened. Bewildered—because suddenly her entire life had been disrupted and she did not know where to turn; hurt, because she was a loving mother to her children and devoted to their father, so she could not understand his desertion; and frightened at the seemingly impossible situation that faced her and the children. She was afraid she might die, and afraid that if her children were placed in our care, they might be taken from her and placed for adoption. It took considerable explaining to quiet these fears and to help her to see that our desire was to help her to keep her family together, not to destroy it; that the children were hers and never could be taken from her for adoptive placement, without her consent.

We soon found that Richard had deep feelings about his mother's illness. He was not so sure that she had not deserted the family also. He showed this by fits of stubbornness and unreasonable spells of temper. Over and over, he had to be re-assured and given love and understanding. It is very frightening to a child to feel that he has been deserted by his parents.

Robert, because he was younger and because he still had Richard to turn to, exhibited none of this anxiety. He fitted into the group easily and was no problem except for the fact that like Richard, he was undernourished and in need of being built up physically.

During the months they were with us, both boys gained in weight because they had more and better food, regular mealtimes, and a regular time for sleeping, also because they began to feel more and more emotionally secure with us. Their mother was delighted when she came to take them home, and it did not matter to them that they were returning to a little one-room shack, inadequate meals and sometimes cold, so long as they could be with their mother, who was truly a good mother to them. The material comforts we give such children never seem to take the place of a mother's love.

So once again, because we could offer temporary care to children in need, another family was reunited.

TEMPORARY CARE

BECAUSE THERE is no adequate substitute to give children in place of their own home and family, we do all that we can for the children who, through necessity, are separated from their parents and living temporarily in The Children's Home Society's Receiving Homes. Perhaps their mothers are ill, or one parent has died or deserted, or the parents have separated and neither one has been able to maintain a home.

The Children's Home Society's Receiving Homes care for children at the request of the Public Welfare Department, the Juvenile Courts and the other social agencies of Florida, while these agencies either help the parents to re-establish their homes or, if this is not possible, work out other permanent plans for the children.

How about the children during this time? They are cared for by women who truly love children and who give their whole life to their care. They not only see that the children are provided for, but, just as important, they are aware of each child's individual needs. Some of the children's unhappiness over being separated from their families comes out in their being shy and unable to laugh and play as children do. Some children become boisterous and noisy in order that nobody will know that they care. Other children become so good that you know they are afraid because of being transplanted. The house parents try to help each child in the way he needs to be helped.

The caseworkers talk with the children, helping them to understand why it has been necessary for them to leave their homes, and helping them to know that The Children's Home Society knows why they feel as they do and act as they do. They prepare them for whatever is ahead. The children go to public schools and to the neighborhood churches, and every effort is made to give them the things, physically, spiritually, and socially, which are important for contentment and growth.

ADOPTION

WHEN ADOPTION seems to be the right plan for a child, careful and thoughtful work is done with the child's own family before he is released to The Children's Home Society. The child's new family can always know that the natural parents were given the opportunity to make a considered decision that adoption was best. That decision is made before the adoptive parents are offered the child. As much as possible is learned about the child's family in order that his new parents may know the kind of people from whom he came. The tiny baby is observed carefully so that it can be determined, with the help of the pediatrician, if he is healthy and normal. If the baby has serious health difficulties, the Society will care for him until our pediatricians are sure that he is robust and healthy. Dependable legal service is given. This is all essential in order to give complete protection to the child's parents, the child and the adoptive parents.

A child placed for adoption will become part of a family that is "his own kind of people." It is possible to plan this because of the wide choice among families desiring to adopt. He will start life with parents who are healthy and able to provide for him; parents not only able to provide materially, but with a real desire to care for him physically and spiritually. A year will pass before the adoption becomes legal — time enough for the family and The Children's Home Society to be sure that everything is right. As time goes on, the child will know he is adopted, but will feel secure because he has adoptive parents who truly love and cherish him.

Completing a Family

AFTER FINISHING college, Paul's mother became a trained nurse and felt that she was more than able to provide for herself. However, when she found herself with a tiny infant, she realized that although she could support him, she could not mother him and earn a livelihood, too. Because she loved her baby very much, she gave this a tremendous amount of thought and in the end she sorrowfully realized that, for Paul's sake, she needed to place him for adoption. At that point, she came to the Children's Home Society and asked us to help her with her plans.

Paul was a source of great concern to the Children's Home Society because of his very poor physical condition. He did not have serious illnesses, but he had many minor ones and looked like such a delicate child that we questioned not only the likelihood of his growing to be a healthy boy, but doubted the possibility of his surviving. Paul's background was excellent. For two generations most of the members of his family had attended college.

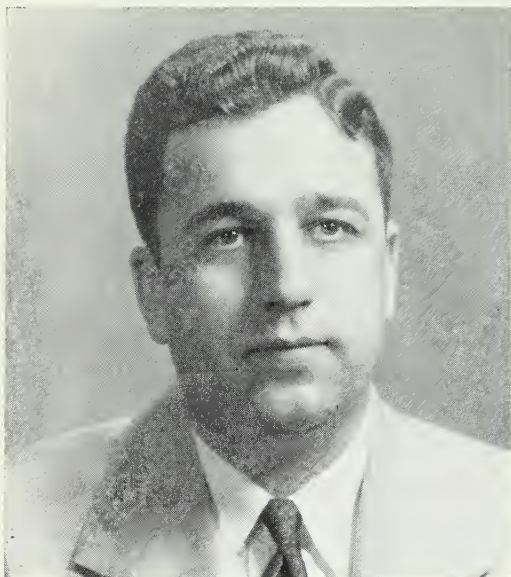

Usually, the Children's Home Society places babies for adoption when they are about two months old, but we continued to board Paul for nine months. He had most careful study by the pediatrician, psychologist and caseworker, all of whom agreed that it would be asking an adoptive family to take too much risk to place him for adoption until we saw how he would develop.

The scrupulous care given to Paul finally brought results. At about his seventh month he began to develop and to be free of minor illnesses. At nine months he was healthy and sturdy; he had become active and playful but he was still extremely sensitive.

Everything indicated that Paul needed adoptive parents who would be patient and loving and gentle. A great deal of time was given to considering the family who would have the most to offer him, and finally a young couple was found who could give him the love and care he needed. Paul certainly approved of our choice. When he and his new family visited together, Paul acted after five minutes as if they had been his family all through his infancy. His face glowed and was wreathed in smiles. He played with them and when they telephoned to his new uncle to tell him about their wonderful baby, Paul insisted on talking over the telephone.

The Children's Home Society, of course, is keeping in touch with Paul and his new family for a year, and always when they are seen together there is further confirmation that they truly belong together.

Statement of Eugene P. Elebash, Jr.

THE WESTERN DIVISION of the Children's Home Society, suffered a severe loss in the death of their long time president-treasurer, Colonel Harry A. Lurton, on October 26, 1951.

Colonel Lurton had given untiringly of his time and services for over thirty years and during this time more than 3,387 children received his personal consideration and guidance.

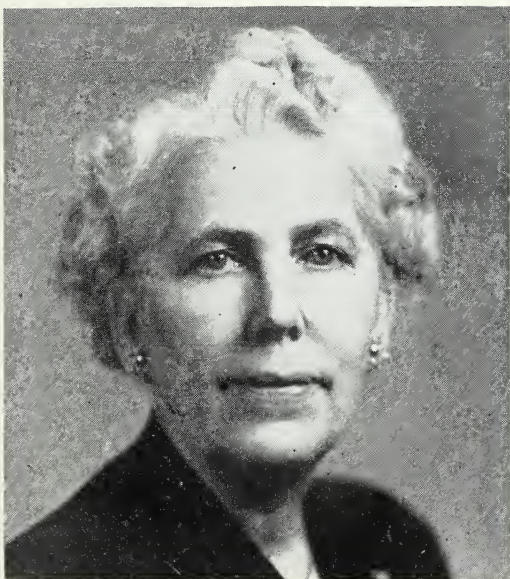

As the new president of the Western Division, I will do my utmost to carry out the fine principals already initiated, so that the Home will continue to warrant the position of high respect it now holds in the Community. With the continued excellent and united efforts of our Officers, Directors, Staff of Workers, Woman's Advisory Board and Staff of Physicians and Dentists, I am sure these accomplishments can be made.

Mrs. Octavia Copenhaver

Mrs. Octavia Copenhaver, Superintendent of the Western Division Receiving Home, certainly displays the traits of a true mother to the children under her care. Our Society is fortunate indeed to have such a fine person to look after the needs of our children. She is one who lives a rich, full life, and is undoubtedly idolized by many children who have called her "Mother."

The examples set by Mrs. Copenhaver and her able assistant, Miss Rosa Norman, will have a great deal to do with the destiny of these young Americans who will be our citizens of tomorrow. We wish that every child was fortunate enough to have as wonderful a "mother" as Mrs. Copenhaver.

Many of the Officers and Directors of the Western Division Board and Woman's Advisory Board have expressed their sincere gratitude for the privilege of having the services of these two fine ladies. The new President can well appreciate having a staff that can handle the problems of the Receiving Home so ably.

Resolutions

Concerning The Passing of Colonel Harry A. Lurton

On Friday, October the Twenty-sixth, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-One, Colonel Harry A. Lurton was called from this earth through the wisdom of a kindly Providence to a higher and greater service in the Great Beyond.

In the passing of Colonel Harry A. Lurton, the nation has lost a great and distinguished soldier. Florida has lost an outstanding citizen. Pensacola has lost a most excellent civic leader. The Western Division of The Children's Home Society of Florida has lost its most faithful, loyal and diligent Officer and Director. The needy children served through the Western Division have lost their most thoughtful and helpful friend. The loss of Colonel Lurton to his host of personal friends will be felt through the years. Here then is recorded the passing of a rare individual.

WHEREAS, The Children's Home Society of Florida has lost in the passing of Colonel Harry A. Lurton (for more than twenty-five years the President and Treasurer and leading spirit of the Home Society's services in the West Florida area) one of its most zealous and genuine friends, and

WHEREAS, the entire State of Florida has lost one of its most valued and outstanding citizens, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Officers and Directors, the members of the Executive Committee, and the Society's staff of workers, that the Society give expression of genuine gratitude and appreciation for the immeasurable services rendered by Colonel Lurton to the Society, and to its needy children, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Home Society express its heartfelt and continuing sympathy to the bereaved family, relatives and friends, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions be permanently inscribed in the official records of the Society, and that copies be sent to the family and relatives of Colonel Harry A. Lurton, and to the press.

Respectfully submitted,

In Memoriam

THE FRIENDS listed here have sent gifts, during 1951, to our Society in memory of their relatives and friends who have passed away, instead of sending floral offerings, in this way not only commemorating their loved ones, but also helping some needy children to have a fuller and better life.

MRS. JAMES M. JACKSON, Chairman
Sponsoring Committee, CHS,
Crescent City, Florida

OUR SPONSORING COMMITTEES REPORT FOR 1952

MRS. JAMES M. JACKSON, the very active and enthusiastic Chairman of the Sponsoring Committee for The Children's Home Society at Crescent City, was selected to represent over 2,000 members of the Sponsoring Committees in the State at the Annual Meeting of the Society, held in Jacksonville, Thursday, January 24th, 1952.

The Crescent City Committee has done an outstanding job of supporting our work for many years, and we were happy to ask Mrs. Jackson to speak on this subject at our forty-ninth annual meeting.

Mrs. Jackson outlined in some detail the method of procedure which she has evolved through some fourteen years in this work.

"Personal contact," she declared, "I place above any other means. I am sure that the reason we have been able to exceed our quota regularly each year is that I deliver my messages and drop my 'hints' by telephone or in daily conversation with our contributors, especially during the period leading up to the annual Christmas Party at the Woman's Club.

"Further, I have endeavored to be a local information bureau for foster parents which, I believe, results in their seeking information more freely than if they had to do so by long distance.

"Throughout my entire relationship with the main office at Jacksonville, I have enjoyed the finest cooperation from Mr. Fagg and Mr. France and all others connected with the office and Receiving Home, giving me a feeling of security and staunch backing, and I have thus acquired a wider margin of information to dispense than could be otherwise secured."

Mrs. Jackson expressed her surprise that so few persons are acquainted with the memorial fund of the Children's Home, pointing out how eager bereaved persons are to have their loved ones remembered through this method, which aids homeless children, rather than through the usual floral offerings. "No other contact," she declared, "so closely binds prospective contributors to the Home as does this method."

The total received from all the Statewide Sponsoring Committees during 1951 was $61,566.17, a slight increase over the total for the previous year.

OUR CHILD

This child of yours is mine
 Altho unknown to me,
 And hence I seek to share
 His future destiny.
 Are we not brethren all
 Who walk the rounded earth,
 Kinfolk alike by death
 And kinfolk by our birth?
 For you whose child has need
 I now my coins bestow
 That I who am thy kin
 May help our offspring grow.

ONCE ONLY

A child is a child but only once;
 And once is only briefly.
 For childhood is but prologue to
 The adult he is chiefly.
 A child is a child like dawn's today—
 And dawn is oh, so fleeting.
 No man can stay the either one
 By subterfuge or greeting.
 A child is a child but only once,
 Yet here the man's formation.
 We mold within that little span
 The future of a nation!

LOUISE

A VERY LOVELY little girl came under the care of our Society when she was six years old. She had beauty, poise, grace and an inclination toward the better things of life.

She was placed in an adoptive home but an unfortunate circumstance caused her return to our care after a few years. She was hesitant to try another placement so she remained in our Home, where she enjoyed the privileges of a teen-ager, attended High School and was active in her Church. She was always thoughtful of others and made herself very useful, as love for children and animals is one of her outstanding traits.

Because of her natural charm and pleasing personality, Louise made many friends and was a valued member of our West Florida Receiving Home family. Late in 1950 she was given in marriage by the late Colonel Harry A. Lurton. This was indeed a memorable occasion for our Western Division, with romance, glamour and orange blossoms. "Scotland House," beautifully decorated for the occasion by the members of our Woman's Advisory Board, was a delightful setting for the wedding, and never was there a lovelier bride than our Louise. The Children's Home Society is proud of the part it had in the establishment of another fine home.

FLARE

WHAT PART have you played in the success that has been enjoyed for these many years? We know that nearly everyone has had some part in helping us to render the outstanding services of care, study and supervision to thousands of children. We feel that you should have an honored spot in the fiftieth annual report and have reserved space for it. Your name will appear in it if you make a direct contribution to the Society of $5.00 or more during 1952. We feel certain that almost without exception everyone who receives this annual report will be named in the next one, but you are being given this information in order that you may help us to gain new friends and give them the same honor and privilege which you have. How many friends do you have that you can tell about The Children's Home Society of Florida during this, our fiftieth year?

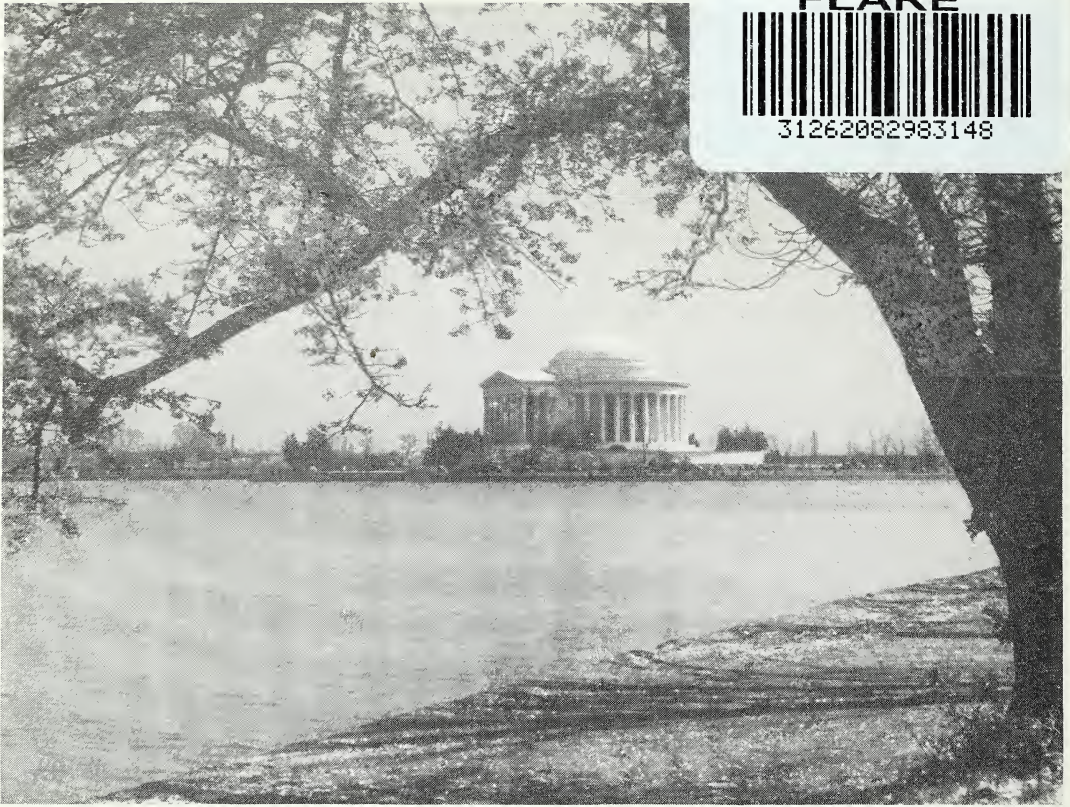

There comes a time in the life of all successful organizations when they are privileged to celebrate their Golden Anniversary. The Children's Home Society of Florida is now at the threshold of that Golden Anniversary, this being their fiftieth year of service.

WE CAN'T all have monuments as imposing as those erected to the memory of Thomas Jefferson and George Washington. But it was actually their thoughts and deeds that made them live on in the hearts of their countrymen, was is not?

So it can be with you. The Children's Home Society of Florida offers an exceptional opportunity for our friends to leave a "living memorial," by making a bequest for the continuing purpose of making the lives of little children more secure, a gift that will live on in the lives of our "future citizens."

Elsewhere in this report you will find our HONOR ROLL, a list of the friends of our Society who have taken this means of helping our state to build finer citizens, and by so doing have made their own names immortal.

And since the thought must precede the deed, we would like to ask you to give some thought to the desirability of making such a bequest — a monument in the life of a child, a child who because of the opportunity offered by your bequest, will have the chance to live a normal, happy, successful life. Some of these children, whose lives have been salvaged, will develop into leaders, men and women who may help to guide the destiny of our nation. What finer purpose could you have than this — true building for the future?

Form of Bequest

I give and bequeath to The Children's Home Society of Florida (a corporation not for profit) the sum of $ _____
